Lot 1: This is a live breast cast made from plaster of Paris of Kerry Farrant. Kerry says "I have taken part in this amazing project because at the age of 28 and 12 weeks pregnant my life changed forever. Having to go through surgery to have my left breast removed while carrying my unborn baby was a difficult experience..."[

Lot 2: This is a live breast cast made from plaster of Paris of Sally Turner. Sally says "My name is Sally. I am a wife, Mum and grandma. Three years ago, aged 53, I was diagnosed with breast cancer. When I initially found the lump and had an ultrasound, I was told it was just a cyst. However the lump..."[

Lot 3: This is a live breast cast made from plaster of Paris of Mary Hills. Mary says "When I discovered the lump on my 52nd birthday I have never felt such fear, I passed the next 18 months of multiple operations and chemotherapy in a state that I can only describe as numb, egged on by my family, friend..."[

Lot 4: This is a live breast cast made from plaster of Paris of Emma Warrington. Emma says "I decided to take part in the project in memory of my twin sister Kirsty, who I lost to breast cancer 4 years ago at the age of 31. There is a family gene in our family which has led to many members having cancer..."[

Lot 5: This is a live breast cast made from plaster of Paris of Tracey Stephenson. Tracey says "I m 50 this year, a widow with 3 daughters and a year ago, in September 2014, following my first mammogram, I was diagnosed with breast cancer. I saw a piece in the Bury Free Press about the project. I was about..."[

Lot 6: This is a live breast cast made from plaster of Paris of Deborah Blumfield. Deborah says "Having breast cancer is a life changing journey and I wanted to share a very positive outcome. Following a left mastectomy in April 2006 age 46, I had reconstructive surgery in July 2008. Most people would..."[

Lot 7: This is a live breast cast made from plaster of Paris of Tania Watson. Tania says "I am not battling or fighting, just dealing with it and moving on. Trying to turn what could have been very negative into a positive. I am no stronger or braver than you are, until you have to you will never know..."[

Lot 8: This is a live breast cast made from plaster of Paris of Katie Milbank. Katie says "My grandmother died of breast cancer when I was very young, I don t really remember her much, only from photographs. When I was growing up, my mum had a lump removed from her breast and I remember going to visit..."[

Lot 9: This is a live breast cast made from plaster of Paris of Melanie McGuinness. Melanie says "It took a while to warm to the idea of allowing the general public to view my breasts, after all exposure of breasts usual follows the protocol of page 3 models and something to be proud of. Being proud of..."[

Lot 10: This is a live breast cast made from plaster of Paris of Susannah Johns. Susannah says "The reason I decided to do the boobie cast was because I had already signed up with my 16 friends to do the moonwalk in London 26 miles for breast cancer I thought the more I do to help raise awareness the better..."[

Lot 11: This is a live breast cast made from plaster of Paris of Stephanie Fairbrother. Stephanie says "My story starts in June 2007 when I had a right breast mastectomy due to Stage 3 cancer. The invading article was apparent 5cm big which shocked me. The one thing which I begged my surgeon to keep was..."
This is a live breast cast made from plaster of paris of Gail Watts. Gail says "In 2009 within a month of each other my beautiful sister aged 38 and my lovely mother-in-law were both diagnosed with breast cancer. Both had very different extreme treatments, my sister had lumpectomy, chemotherapy an ..., [more]

This is a live breast cast made from plaster of paris of Jane Crockett. Jane says "The timing of this exciting project is perfect for me as I am now celebrating my five year anniversary since being diagnosed with breast cancer and will finish hormone therapy in October. Soon after my mastectomy an ..., [more]

This is a live breast cast made from plaster of paris of Nicola Daykin. Nicola says, "Sometimes it feels like a piece of the jigsaw puzzle is missing. I have 2 sisters and the statistic I always remember is that 1 in 3 women will get Breast Cancer. So when you look to your left and to your right ..., [more]

This is a live breast cast made from plaster of paris of Christina Petitt. Christina says, "Hello my name is Christina. My cast represents my excitement and passion to be involved in this project. My story is one of two halves. In 1997 my best friend and I both found lumps in our breasts. We both ..., [more]

This is a live breast cast made from plaster of paris of Bianca Carpenter. Bianca says, "I'm Bianca, I'm a healthy 27 year old who eats well and runs 3 times a week as I enjoy taking part in running events such as half marathons and of course the race for life which myself and my mum enter every y ..., [more]

This is a live breast cast made from aluminium of Bethany Dowe. Bethany says "We have as sisters taken part in this event in memory of our beautiful mum. She battled hard to fight this disease for twelve years through heartache, pain and many tears. Our mum taught us to care and always be aware! ..., [more]

This is a live breast cast made from plaster of Hannah Dowe. Hannah says, "We have as sisters taken part in this event in memory of our beautiful mum. She battled hard to fight this disease for twelve years through heartache, pain and many tears. Our mum taught us to care and always be aw ..., [more]

This is a live breast cast made from plaster of Louise Dowe. Louise says, "We have as sisters taken part in this event in memory of our beautiful mum. She battled hard to fight this disease for twelve years through heartache, pain and many tears. Our mum taught us to care and always be aw ..., [more]

This is a live breast cast made from plaster of Kate Dowe. Kate says "We have as sisters taken part in this event in memory of our beautiful mum. She battled hard to fight this disease for twelve years through heartache, pain and many tears. Our mum taught us to care and always be aware! ..., [more]

This is a live breast cast made from plaster of Sue Smith. Sue says "We (Suffolk Breakthrough) were approached with this wonderful project way back at the beginning of the year. What an amazing idea to help raise awareness. Of course I was going to be involved, having my breasts cast and p ..., [more]

This is a live breast cast made from plaster of Laura Hudson. Laura says "I have volunteered for the Suffolk group of Breakthrough Breast Cancer for the last 6 years. Having lost my father to Cancer when I was only 13, I know the pain of not only growing up without a parent, but living wi ..., [more]

This is a live breast cast made from plaster of Aisleyne Horgan-Wallace. Aisleyne says "I am supporting the 'Simply The Breast' project to encourage women to check themselves. My mum died at 54 years old for something that could have been stopped if she had known sooner. It's important ev ..., [more]